Be Kind to One Another

Rev. Rhonda Hobbs

Thank you all for the compassion that you have shown to me and my family during my daddy's battle with cancer. Your prayers, your cards, and expressions of love and condolences have given us encouragement and strength during this difficult time. Birthing into eternity is not any easier than giving birth into this temporary life on earth. Your kind words and deeds have brought joy to our hearts in the midst of a great sadness.

On Sunday evening, after the longest night and day of my life, I was weary and numb, but hungry, so I settled on ordering pizza delivered to the house. (There is a reason they call it comfort food.) When the man brought the pizza, we began to exchange the normal niceties.

I said, "Hi, how are you today?"

Pizzaman, "Not good. It's been an awful day."

What? No, you're supposed to say "Just fine, thank you." Well, since he had broken the code, so did I and I replied,

"I bet my day's been worse."

Pizzaman, "My girlfriend just broke up with me."

Ouch, that hurts.

"My dad died this morning."

"You win. I'm sorry."

"Not a contest you really want to win. I'm sorry for your loss too."

So two complete strangers with nothing outwardly in common, consoled one another on the front porch while exchanging a pizza for money. I felt the Holy Spirit's presence with us. Nothing extraordinary like leaping tall buildings with a single bound, no super human strength required. Simply kindness.

Everyone, all people everywhere, are going through something in their life.

Everyone has a story. Ask. Share. Listen. Be kind. It's really not that hard. Shalom (may God give you all you need to be whole.) Rhonda and the Hobbs Family

"And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you." (Ephesians 4:30-32, NRSV)

The death of a loved one, especially a parent, is a burden that is very hard to bear. But when you have a special church family who bring food, send cards and flowers, share hugs of comfort, come to visitation and the funeral service and most importantly, keep you bathed in prayers; then you are blessed! This is how I truly feel. Blessed to be a part of Trinity's church family. Thank you for all that you have done to make this life event more bearable for me and my children. We will all miss my dad and Tedman and Deedra's granddad. And I sincerely appreciate your continued prayers and support!

*In His service,
Deb, Deedra, and Tedman Glenn*

Life Together Application

The Bible provides Christians specific instructions on how we are to be “together” as the body of Christ. However, it’s not always clear on how we apply these practices to our daily life together as a church community and sometimes we just forget. Together with others on our church leadership team, we’d like to share in each month’s newsletter biblical principles on doing life together.

How are Christians to handle disagreements? Two key scriptures come to mind – “speak the truth in love” (Ephesians 4:15) and “if you have issue with your brother or sister, go to them alone, if that doesn’t help the situation then take another person with you” (Matthew 18:15-20)

Putting it into Practice. Do you know people who hold everything inside and then suddenly explode? Or others who tell you exactly what’s on their mind, as soon as it pops into their mind? In these scriptures God tells us that our words should be spoken in love. So when you have something to share, think about what you want to say, what do you want to accomplish? Will your words build the other person up or tear them down? The Bible also says that our words have power – the power to give life or death. So choose them wisely and carefully. Write them down beforehand or practice ahead of time with an unbiased friend. Picture the face of Jesus on the person as you talk to them. Sharing our truth is not easy but if it is done correctly it will make our relationships stronger.

Additionally, the Bible says to go directly to the person. Have you ever been guilty of gossip? We all know that it’s wrong but we do it anyway. Why? Because it is hard to go directly to the person. It takes courage. Sadly the easy way is to talk to everyone else about what’s bothering us. But that tears churches and relationships apart. It creates strife and division and does NOT bring any resolution to whatever the problem may be. That’s why Jesus says to go to that person directly and only involve someone else if the situation is not resolved.

One last thought – timing. Have you ever heard the phrase “timing is everything?” “Like golden apples set in silver is a word spoken at the right time. (ISV, Proverbs 25:11) It really is critical whether we are trying to resolve a personal conflict or share our opinions or genuinely wanting to give constructive feedback... timing is everything. A rightly timed word can change someone’s life ...for good or ill. Consider when you are going to share your thoughts or ideas with a person. You will want to be at your best but also allow them to be at their best so they can give you their undivided attention. Our leadership team really wants your constructive feedback. We want to know what’s on your heart and for you to come to us directly. The best time to talk with us, especially the pastor or worship leader is during the week but please not on Sunday mornings as we are focused on providing the best possible worship experience for our congregation.

Words based in love, spoken directly to the person, at the right time builds up, encourages and makes us stronger together.

Happy practicing!

Fifth Sunday Lunch!

October 29 is a fifth Sunday and that means lunch after church to benefit Feeding Trinity's Sheep. Thanks to all who have and are supporting this ministry. We have helped many families and individuals over the last year.

For those who don't know, Feeding Trinity's Sheep provides food to those who have a need beyond what their Sunday School Classes or small group can provide. We help those recovering from hospital visits, senior adults who can use a helping hand with meals and new parents. We cook several different meals at one time throughout the year and have a Dedicated freezer to store the meals.

If you have a need, please contact Chad in the office. If you would like to volunteer to help cook, setup for Sunday lunch or help with takedown, please contact Suzy Ooten 865-805-8822.

Grillzilla will have been fully renovated by the end of October and will be ready for use. So come join us and support this ministry!

SERVICE PROJECT

Thank you for those who have brought stuff in already. We are still collecting through the month of October! What snack would you want if you were in a waiting room in the hospital? We are collecting packaged snacks: PB crackers, small bags of nuts, cookies, snack cakes, chips etc. and drinks: juice boxes, cans of soda, coconut water etc. Our children will be taking these goodies to an intensive care waiting room and handing them out to families there who are visiting loved ones. There will be a drop box in the Narthex. Give generously.
