A Timely Word

Rev. Rhonda Hobbs

I picked up my daily devotion guide and this is the scripture reading for today, Monday, August 21, 2017:

“The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

What makes this so timely and actually funny is because, as you know, today is the total eclipse of the sun! I chuckled but then the rest of that passage made me stop:

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

-Matthew 4:16-17

I wonder today, while we were sitting in the darkness one minute and being overwhelmed by a great light seconds later, do we acknowledge the darkness within ourselves that eclipses the bright light of Christ that also dwells inside us? Are there periods during our daily living when our sinful nature passes over us and prevents His light from shining through us to others?

Our condolences to Jackson & Liz Wright in the passing of Jackson's sister, Patricia Gail Wright

Repentance, biblically understood, means to turn and go a different direction – to turn from following the forces of evil and injustice in the world, to go a new way and follow Jesus. Sometimes we repent of blatant sins that separate us from God, like lying, stealing, abuse of our bodies, or not loving our neighbors. Those kinds of eclipses are pretty obvious. But what about turning from ignoring social injustice around us to having the courage to stand up to it? What about the times that we are silent when we should speak? What about the eclipses that keeps us from seeing those with physical needs all around us? Can we turn and go towards them without a sense of superiority, only a sense of call to serve in the name of Jesus?

In this same devotion book, the late Bishop Rueben Job asks, “What will it mean for you to repent and believe? Only you can fill in the details. But Jesus promises the power and presence to enable you to live the good life, a life in harmony with God.” Repentance is NOT a one-time event or decision made at the altar. Repentance is a daily altering of our lives to consciously turn at any moment and follow God’s will rather than our own.

What will it mean for you to repent and believe?

“Repentance requires two things: humility and trust... humility is the confession that I am a sinner, one whose life is not whole and who lacks the power both to find either the direction to wholeness or the resources for wholeness on my own; trust is a trust in a power that can and will ultimately sustain and establish me IF I let go of myself into that power’s hands..” (Craig Dykstra, p. 320 A Guide to Prayer)

The light of Christ has dawned in our lives but we need daily turning to readjust our course to stay in that light. Those who once sat in darkness have seen a great light – now what are they going to do with that?

Shalom Rhonda
